DMR Adventures has been providing professional performing arts training from the professionals since 2009. The high caliber of training serves to drive passion, discipline, and commitment in the students with whom we work. As a result of our exceptional training, our students have gone on to top musical theatre conservatories and university training programs, and to perform in film, television, theme parks and national tours! We believe in making performances and classes accessible to all and our classes, camps and tickets are on a sliding scale to help our entire community participate. Since 2020, we are proud to have provided over $250,000 in scholarships and discounts to students in need.
