

Into the Woods JR - Fall Homeschool Production Class

You do not need to audition to be invited in this program - anyone who is the right age may register. However, there will be auditions/casting session within the program from which the creative team will cast the show - all registered students who complete the audition process will be cast. We do not plan to double cast this show. We may ask students to do some private music/voice lessons outside of this schedule at no additional cost.
